INSTRUCTIONS

THE DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY GROUP LIFE INSURANCE FORM

1. The Primary Beneficiary(ies) you name will receive your insurance benefit if living at the time of your death. If the Primary Beneficiary(ies) are deceased at the time of your death, the Contingent Beneficiary(ies) you name will receive the benefit.
2. The Employee Signature and Date must be completed in order for this form to be legally binding. The witness cannot be a designated beneficiary.
3. If more than one beneficiary is to share the proceeds, payment will be made in equal shares unless you specify otherwise on this form (in the "Percentage to Receive" space). Specify different shares by fractions or percentages rather than dollar amounts.
4. If you wish money to go to an organization, designate your Estate as your beneficiary and outline your wishes in your will.
5. When a beneficiary is not related, state the relationship as "non-relative."
6. If you need more room, attach additional sheets, specify the type(s) of beneficiary(ies) you are naming, and include all requested information. Each additional sheet must be signed and dated in order to be legally binding.
7. Your Designation of Beneficiary form will be considered invalid and returned to you if:
 - you do not sign and date the form
 - you do not provide the social security numbers and dates of birth of all beneficiaries
 - the form has been altered or is not legible
 - the form references another document or contains "and/or" or "or" in the designation
 - the designation lists only the first names of the beneficiaries
8. You have the right to change your beneficiary designation(s) at any time, without the consent of any person, by filing a new Designation of Beneficiary form. At your death, your life insurance benefit will go to the beneficiary(ies) named on your most recent Designation of Beneficiary form if the signed and dated form was postmarked before your death.
9. If completing Application for Coverage and Beneficiary form, return completed forms to your Employer.

If completing Beneficiary form only,
